

Nossa Voz vocal group present their new show "Circus Buarque do Brasil"

Following their first show "Singing Brazil", still regularly staged to great applause, Nossa Voz now presents a production featuring songs written by one of the greatest exponents of Brazilian culture: Chico Buarque de Hollanda.

The show unfolds against the backdrop of a circus, drawing on the subject matter of the famous album by Chico Buarque and Edu Lobo: "O grande circo místico" ("The Great Mystical Circus")

The repertoire has been carefully selected, arranged and prepared for this project by Musical Director Gui Tavares, and has been fortunate to benefit from the artistic involvement of a number of excellent professionals. The concept of situating all the songs within the world of the circus was devised by Laura Arantes, who will direct the show. Circus skills are directed by Katia

Capovila and body movements by choreographer Vinicius. There will also be Brazilian singer Leandra Varanda.

This production features a particularly interesting detail: the involvement of musicians from the Guildhall School of Music. 10 musicians making up a mini-orchestra will add a symphonic touch to the best known and loved of all Chico Buarque's songs.

This will be a memorable and moving show for all who have the unique opportunity to attend.

There will be no admission charge for this show, but we do ask for a voluntary contribution to cover the production and professional costs incurred by the project.

Thank you and enjoy the show!
